The Second Sunday after Epiphany

January 18, 2026 - 10:30 am

A warm welcome to The Lutheran Church of The Redeemer!

The Feast of the Epiphany, and the season that follows, draws us into a new reality. In this season, we proclaim that the light revealed in Jesus Christ is the light that shines in the darkness—a light that gives life to all. We declare that this light is not meant for a single people or place, but for the whole world. The visit of the Magi—foreigners and seekers, guided by a star—signals that God's self-giving love in Christ reaches beyond familiar boundaries and expectations. The gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh point to who this child truly is: king, priest, and suffering servant. Even at the manger, the shadow of the cross and the promise of resurrection are present.

For the Church, this season calls for our renewed faith in the light—so that our lives may be transformed and, through that transformation, increasingly become reflections of the light that shines upon us. We are invited to live as people shaped by that light: attentive to God's presence and willing to follow Christ wherever he leads.

May this season of Epiphany renew our vision, steady our hope, and send us out rejoicing—to bear the light of Christ to a waiting world.

Whether you are a long-time member, a newcomer to our parish, or simply exploring your faith, we are delighted to have you join us. We are a family of faith dedicated to sharing God's love and grace through worship, fellowship, and service.

We invite you to join us for our worship services, participate in our ministries, and become a part of our vibrant parish. May you feel the presence of the Holy Spirit among us and find a spiritual home here at Redeemer.

The Lutheran Church of The Redeemer is a Christian community of diverse people called and guided by the Holy Spirit to nurture with God's love those within and beyond our congregation.

A place where God is at work!
All are welcome. No exceptions.

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

<We stand.>>

CONFSSION AND FORGIVENESS

Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, the Creator of heaven and earth, the Word who spoke life into being, the Wind stirring the waters. Amen.

Let us turn in confession to the one who knows us completely.

Silence is kept for reflection.

<We kneel.>>

Mighty God, lover of justice,
you call us to life in community, but we have served our own interests at the expense of our neighbors. We have sown deceit where honesty was needed. We say the right words, but our hearts are far from you. Turn us to seek your face. Knit us together and give us the mind of Christ, that we may do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with you, our God.
Amen.

<We stand..>>

The former things have passed away, and new things God now declares: Like a spring of water that never fails, God covers you in the righteousness of Christ, and forgives your sins in † Jesus's name. May the Spirit give you strength to live for others, and bless you with the gift of peace.

Amen.

READING

Psalm 127:1-2

Pew Bible page 499

Unless the Lord builds the house, those who build it labor in vain. Unless the Lord guards the city, the guard keeps watch in vain. It is in vain that you rise up early and go late to rest, eating the bread of anxious toil, for he gives sleep to his beloved.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

The Holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to you, O Lord.

John 2:13-25

Pew Bible page 990

The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves and the money changers seated at their tables. Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, with the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables. He told those who were selling the doves, "Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father's house a marketplace!" His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will consume me." The Jews then said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews then said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?" But he was speaking of the temple of his body. After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken. When he was in Jerusalem during the Passover festival, many believed in his name because they saw the signs that he was doing. But Jesus on his part would not entrust himself to them, because he knew all people and needed no one to testify about anyone, for he himself knew what was in everyone.

<At the conclusion of the reading>

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

HYMN OF THE DAY

Wash, O God, Our Sons and Daughters

ELW Hymn 445

APOSTLE'S CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

As God's beloved children united in Christ, let us pray for the church, the whole human community, and the well-being of the earth, our home.

<We kneel.>

Each prayer petition will end with "Merciful God," and the response is "receive our prayer."

Confident that the Holy Spirit receives our prayers and answers us, we commend all for whom we pray to God's loving-kindness made known to us in Christ Jesus our Savior.

Amen.

<We stand.>

SHARING OF THE PEACE

The peace of Christ be with you always. And also, with you.

You are invited to share the peace, however you and those around you are comfortable.
